

Metro Dancers

Auditions

Saturday, January 12th

Portland Metro Arts Center
9003 SE Stark Portland, Oregon 97216

503-408-0604

MetroDancers@PDXMetroArts.org

Auditions are open to anyone, regardless of where they received their training. We are casting for principal and supporting characters as well as adult, children's, intermediate and advanced dancing roles as well as non-dancing Supernumeraries.

This full-length comedy ballet features the lush music of Glazunov. Set in the splendor of an Italian villa, Les Ruses d'Amour is full of fun and surprises. The entire family will enjoy the antics of Isabelle and Damis, betrothed strangers disguising themselves to avoid marriage.

Children's Dancing Roles

3:00pm Registration

3:30pm Audition

Dancers must be at least six years old (1st grade) and have a minimum of one year of dance experience of any kind. Parts drawn from this group will be Village children.

Intermediate, Advanced & Adult Dancing Roles

1:30pm Registration

2:00pm Audition

Dancers must have at least four years' dance experience. Parts drawn from this group will be Principals, Adult villagers, Peasants and Nobility. Women wishing a role en pointe should bring their pointe shoes.

Supernumeraries & Mini-Supers

Those interested in "walk-on" parts in the group scenes need only send us an email with your interest that includes all basic contact information. Mini-Supers are 4-6 year-olds who will be escorted onstage by their own adult. Please include child's information as well as that of their designated adult in your email.

For more information go to: <https://pdxmetroarts.org/Draft/LesRusesInfo.html>

For Audition Pre-Registration form CLICK HERE